Re: Reuben Golin
Security Matter-C

On April 2, 1960, a confidential source advised that Reuben Golin was listed among individuals scheduled to go on a "Theatre and Ballet Tour" of the Soviet Union.

The same confidential source advised on 4/23/60, that Reuben Golin was scheduled to separate from the "Ballet and Theatre Tour" in Moscow, Russia on May 3, 1960, in order to remain in Moscow until May 9, 1960, when he planned to leave for Paris, France, via SU (Aeroflot) flight 049. Golin then planned to leave Paris for New York on May 13, 1960, via Air France, flight 011.

A confidential source advised on June 20, 1956, that the following name was on a list of members of the New York City Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG)

"Reuben Golin, Esq.
350 Fifth Avenue
New York 1, N.Y."

✓ A characterization of the NLG is located in the Appendix hereto.

On April 12, 1960, the records of the New York City Police Department, Bureau of Special Services, reflected that Reuben Golin, Timberline, Jewett, Greene County, New York; business address 350 5th Avenue, New York City, was the owner of a 1952 Studebaker, New York license 6N 6337, which was observed in the parking area at Triboro Stadium, Randall's Island, New York, on May 3, 1953, during a rally held there, sponsored by the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case.

A characterization of the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case is located in the Appendix hereto.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the "National Lawyers' Guild":

"National Lawyers' Guild

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)
- "2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally released September 17, 1950.)
- "3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers' Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.'
